

A. Alexander Lowder

Counsel

213.436.4869
alowder@larsonobrienlaw.com

Education

University of San Diego School of Law
Harvard University, A.B.

Clerkships

Honorable John A. Houston
United States District Court, Southern District of California

Admissions

California
U.S. Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit
U.S.D.C. Central District of California
U.S.D.C. Southern District of California

A. Alexander Lowder is counsel at Larson O'Brien LLP. His practice includes white collar criminal defense and commercial litigation, including complex contract disputes and class actions. In civil matters, Mr. Lowder has represented clients in complex breach of contract matters, product liability actions, and civil rights disputes. Mr. Lowder's criminal experience includes representing individuals and corporations in federal and state investigations and prosecutions, including at trial.

Prior to Larson O'Brien LLP, Mr. Lowder was an associate at a litigation boutique in Los Angeles. He was also a clerk to the Honorable John A. Houston of the United States District Court for the Southern District of California. Mr. Lowder received his law degree from University of San Diego School of Law. In law school, Mr. Lowder served as the Chairperson of the Appellate Moot Court Board, competed on the Appellate Moot Court National Team, and was an editor for the San Diego International Law Journal. Mr. Lowder also externed for the Office of the California Attorney General. Mr. Lowder currently serves on the Board of Directors of the University of San Diego School of Law Alumni Association.

Mr. Lowder received his A.B. in Psychology from Harvard University, where he was a member of the varsity men's basketball team.

Representative Matters

- Represented a Fortune 20 company in civil disputes arising from an industrial explosion.
- Obtained acquittal of a former executive of a bank based in Israel, who had been charged with conspiracy to defraud the United States and related criminal tax violations.
- Represented NBCUniversal in litigation involving fire damage to the Universal Studios back lot.
- Represented a biomedical testing company in a breach of contract dispute.
- Won dismissal of breach of fiduciary duty and contract claims related to an unfinished motion picture project.
- Secured a preliminary injunction in a civil lawsuit involving the theft of trade secrets.
- Successfully appealed the suspension of a former student at the University of Southern California, in the matter John Doe v. University of Southern California.