Jerry A. Behnke is a partner at Larson O'Brien LLP. Mr. Behnke is an experienced trial and appellate lawyer. His practice focuses on white collar criminal defense, internal investigations, and complex civil litigation. Mr. Behnke represents individuals and companies in a wide range of white collar criminal matters, including allegations of wire and mail fraud, healthcare fraud, procurement fraud, false claims, tax violations, and public corruption. He also conducts internal investigations for corporations. Mr. Behnke's civil litigation practice includes breach of contract disputes, civil false claims, breach of fiduciary duties, and environmental matters.

Prior Experience

Mr. Behnke is a former Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) and a former Deputy District Attorney (DDA) with 18 years of experience investigating and prosecuting complex white collar criminal cases. Mr. Behnke has extensive experience handling federal and state anti-corruption, fraud, and regulatory matters. Mr. Behnke previously served as an AUSA in the Southern District of California where he was a member of the Major Frauds and Special Prosecutions Section and also served as a discovery coordinator. Mr. Behnke also previously served as an AUSA in the Central District of California, where he was Deputy Chief in the Riverside branch office. Before his work as a federal prosecutor, Mr. Behnke served as a DDA for Riverside County.

Examples of Mr. Behnke's prior matters include:

- Represented a company in a criminal investigation and prosecution for insurance fraud and negotiated a settlement of the matter as a civil compromise, which resulted in dismissal of the criminal charges.
- Defended a company in a criminal prosecution stemming from the death of one of the company's employees and negotiated a settlement of the matter as a civil compromise, which resulted in dismissal of the criminal charges.
- Represented the owner of a chain of furniture stores in a criminal investigation and prosecution for sales tax fraud and negotiated a settlement of the matter as a misdemeanor.
- Defended a former DEA agent in a federal criminal prosecution involving allegations of conspiracy and fraud. All charges were dismissed in the middle of trial.

- Represented an oil company in a civil suit against a former employee paralegal involving breach of duty of confidentiality, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, and unlawful business practices.
- Conducted an internal investigation for a company that offered lending and financial advice to determine whether the CEO had engaged in fraud.
- Represented a lawyer in an investigation by the State Bar of California. The investigation was closed with no charges filed.
- Represented an oil company accused of violating the Clean Water Act and other statutes related to releases of oil. Obtained sanctions against the State of California for the spoliation of evidence.
